Numerological Report For Nicolas Criticos
Born On 3/13/1998

Your Life Path Number is 7

Your Life Path Number represents the path you should take through life and the talents and skills you have to make your journey a rewarding one.

The Life Path of a 7 is to find universal truths and pursue inner-knowledge. You will explore the mysteries of life and uncover the true meaning of existence. Much of your time will be spent alone, which you will welcome, because isolation will provide you with the time and quiet to pursue knowledge. As your wisdom grows, people will seek you out with the hope you will share your knowledge.

Your Life Destiny Number is 7

Your Destiny Number sheds light on those things you must accomplish in your life in order to be fulfilled.

A 7's destiny is to pursue the truth behind everything and to seek inner-knowledge. This pursuit may often leave you isolated from most of those around you. Indeed, you may seek isolation. Your mission is to uncover wisdom and truth in all its forms. In time, you will be called upon to share your knowledge and wisdom with the rest of us. Your destiny requires you to be a seeker of deeper truths and to separate yourself in some way from everyday, mundane concerns so that you may concentrate on understanding underlying causes and deeper meanings. You are drawn to the study of psychology, philosophy, religion, or metaphysics, or to scientific investigation. You are also inclined to melancholy at times, and retreating to nature will help restore your spirits.

Your Soul Number is 4

Your Soul Number describes your deepest desires and dreams, revealing your inner, private self, your underlying motivations, and your most ingrained attitudes.

You desire to address life with a well thought out plan. You need to have things organized and clear set boundaries. You have no desire to be surprised by anything.

Your Personality Number is 3

Your Personality Number reveals the "external you"--the personality traits others will know you by. It can also signify your appearance and the image you present, as well as your personal appeal and the environments in which you feel most comfortable.

You are a lover of life. You are extroverted and charming, and always want to have fun. You are the lucky possessor of the proverbial "magnetic personality." Your enthusiasm for life is contagious. Your potential to create and inspire others to create seems limitless. Of course, you are not fault free. You can be gossipy and display unwarranted jealousy. In the end, however, most will find your exuberance for life irresistible.

Your Maturity Number is 5

Your Maturity Number reveals the person you will come to be--your true self.

A 5 Maturity Number ensures that throughout your life you will experience the thrills which come with change and constantly develop your free will. In your later years your personal freedom will be fully developed. You will still be a risk taker and embrace change. People will find you very attractive, because you have somehow managed to mature without losing your youthful spirit.

Your Balance Number is 8

As long as your life is on an even or uplifting keel, balance numbers are relatively dormant. However, in those times when your life is out of order your Balance Number can become central to resolving the turmoil you are experiencing. Your Balance Number reflects the traits you need to bring to the forefront in order to get through difficult periods with the least amount of damage or time wasted on negative influences.

The 8 Balance Number indicates you have considerable talents for leading during troubling times, so take the lead and guide all parties involved towards a fair solution. However, be careful to not become dictatorial. You cannot force others to accept your solution. The key is to use your creative talents to find a solution that is fair to all.

The 4 Pinnacles

Pinnacles represent moments in your life in which you realize current goals and learn some of life's lessons. If you are at the beginning of a Pinnacle, then they can be used as a predictive tool to assist in managing your future. Your first Pinnacle begins at birth and lasts until around the age of 27. Your Second Pinnacle lasts through the next 9 years, and the Third Pinnacle lasts for 9 years after the Second Pinnacle has passed. Your Fourth Pinnacle picks up where the Third Pinnacle ends and lasts throughout the rest of your life.

Your First Pinnacle Number is 7

A 7 Pinnacle marks a time for study, self-discovery and spiritual development. Your focus on the inner-self will bring out the loner in you. If your 7 is a First Pinnacle you will probably have to deal with a feeling of alienation. A 7 in the Second or Third Pinnacle demarks a time for further spiritual exploration and refinement of your understanding of yourself. As Fourth Pinnacle, the 7 denotes yet more time exploring your inner-self and the sharing of your wisdom with others.

Your Second Pinnacle Number is 4

You are in a period where you should be building a solid foundation on which to carry on your life. You may be building a home, family or career. Whatever you are doing, it is not a time in which you will or should take it easy.

Your Third Pinnacle Number is 11

While an 11 Pinnacle will be traversed by most as a 2 Pinnacle, for those exploring metaphysical and spiritual issues this will be time of profound development. Those living life on the level of an 11 will find their intuitive powers are at their apex. This will be a time when you are called to inspire, lead and bring joy to those around you and possibly all of humankind.

Your Fourth Pinnacle Number is 3

You are at a time in life where the door to self-expression is ready to open. This should be a very creative period for you during which you also develop strong friendships and learn to speak from your heart.

The 4 Challenges

Challenges denote personal weaknesses and temptations you will have to overcome as well as strengths you should try to develop to fully realize your goals. The 4 Challenges have the same time frame as the 4 Pinnacles.

Your First Challenge Number is 1

A 1 Challenge signifies the struggle to become independent, courageous and have faith in your convictions. If the number 1 appears as your first Challenge you are learning to define your self. Should a 1 appear in your other Challenges you are learning to remain true to your self and become more confident.

Your Second Challenge Number is 5

A 5 Challenge marks a time when you must overcome your fear of change and risk. You will also learn to liberate yourself from that which restricts your self-expression. While a 5 Challenge may be a bit scary, it is a time of great personal development marked by the growth of your individual freedom.

Your Third Challenge Number is 4

Your challenge is to learn the value of practicality, discipline and organization. A 4 challenge is rarely easy. You may find yourself boxed in by boundaries. In this period you will have to learn to be patient, open-minded and flexible.

Your Fourth Challenge Number is 6

A 6 Challenge marks a period in which you will learn to balance the needs of your family with your own. You will learn that true nurturing can only come from your heart. Your idealistic views of marriage may be shaken some, but if you learn to temper them some you will be happier and more secure on the other side of this Challenge.

The 3 Cycles

Cycles occur in 28 year periods. The First Cycle last from birth through your 28th year and is called your Formative or Seed Cycle. The Second Cycle--your Productive or Fruit Cycle--begins at age 29 and lasts through your 56th year. The Third Cycle, your Harvest Cycle, begins with the coming of your 57th year and lasts throughout the rest of your life. Your Cycle Numbers tell you the lessons you must learn and goals you must meet to stay on your Life's Path and achieve your true destiny.

Your First Cycle Number is 3

Your emphasis during this Cycle will be on unleashing your creativity. You will need to focus your energies to get all you can from this Cycle. The reward for traversing this Cycle successfully is a life full of friends and the coming to fruition of your creative talents.

Your Second Cycle Number is 4

This is a time for you to put things in order. You will address many of life's practical concerns during this period. Discipline, order and a willingness to work hard are your greatest allies during this Cycle.

Your Third Cycle Number is 9

Those in a 9 Cycle will see their compassion and tolerance for others blossom. You will find satisfaction in putting the greater good for all ahead of your own needs. This is a cycle in which you will explore the depths of your love for your fellow man.

Your Karmic Lesson Number(s) are/is 4 6 7 8

Karmic Lesson numbers reveal areas in which we need to grow. To become more complete, we need to give extra attention to these areas in this lifetime. If one of your 5 core numbers is the same as a Karmic Lesson Number, the significance of the Karmic Lesson Number is reduced.

A 4 Karmic Lesson Number is indicative of a need for direction in life. Although you may feel somewhat confused about why you are here, work to find your true path through this life.

The number 4 appears in your core numbers, so the importance of this number is lessened.

A 6 Karmic Lesson Number denotes an inability or reluctance to make commitments. Even when you do commit yourself to something it may be your nature to hold back any true passion for the commitment or relationship. Over time you might do well to slowly allow your passions to express themselves and put your heart into your commitments and relationships.

A 7 Karmic Lesson Number signifies you may be neglecting your innate talents. Whether it is a lack of will or fear of failure, it appears you are not devoting enough time and energy to honing those talents that are core to your being. You know what you are best at, so embrace it.

The number 7 appears in your core numbers, so the importance of this number is lessened.

A 8 Karmic Lesson Number points to a talent for making money that is not properly governed. You may experience tremendous swings in your financial status. This is because while you know how to make money, you also tend to be way too speculative and impulsive when dealing with matters of finance. Try and develop a more cautious approach to money matters and it is possible these swings in fortune will diminish.

Your Karmic Debt Number(s) are/is 13 16 14

Karmic Debt Numbers signify past abuses of your talents for which you must make amends. Like all of us, you have made many choices and taken many actions in your lives. Some of those choices and actions have been mistakes. Your past errors must be addressed, and you can use your Karmic Debt Numbers to identify exactly what type of mistakes you have made in the past and how you can atone for them.

A 13 Karmic Debt Number implies that somewhere along your being's path you forsook your spiritual self for material gain. You may have abused others to get ahead in the past or in a past life. Because of your past behavior you may find yourself facing what appears to be one brick wall after another as you try to find success. The key to overcoming these obstacles are perseverance, hard work, and the development of a spiritual awareness that keeps you from abusing the rights of others.

A 16 Karmic Debt Number points to an abuse of love in your past. You may not have been honest about your feelings and/or neglected to consider the feelings of others. The consequence of these actions is that you must now reconnect with that part of your spiritual self that will not allow you to misuse love and affection. Doing this is no easy task. To succeed, that which earned you the 16 must be destroyed, so a more spiritually ethical self can take its place.

A 14 Karmic Debt Number indicates that you have abused your right to freedom. Possibly you increased your freedom to act at the costs of others, or you exercised your free will in ways that abused your own spirit (e.g., drug use). The solution for you is to find a true path to freedom that does not harm you or others around you.

Your Lucky Number is 1

Your Personal Lucky Number does not change. This number will be lucky for your entire life. Your luck derived from this number will be strongest when you are addressing events and issues related to the general meaning of the number. Lucky Numbers should not be relied on to constantly produce positive results, or to make impulsive, high risk gambles. They simply mean that where they appear, you have an edge. How large an edge is impossible to determine, but seems to increase with the number of occurrences your Lucky Number is associated with for a given event or issue.

Those with a Personal Lucky Number 1 will find their luck derived from 1 strongest when they are facing new beginnings. The 1 will also bring you good fortune when you are in a leadership role. Your 1 may not serve you as well when dealing with established financial or romantic situations.

Your Signature Number is a 9

Signature numbers are based on how you sign your name. Your signature carries the power and the faults of one of the base 9 numbers. You may actually want to sign different documents with different signatures to reap the benefit of a particular number. For instance, if you are signing an agreement of partnership you might want to alter your signature to reflect the powers of the number 2.

The signature you entered is a 9. The 9 signature is best suited to mark the completion of contracts or payment plans or the giving of donations.

Your Birthday Number is 4

This number is most influential between your 28th and 56th year. While it is not the most important number in your profile, it does have an effect on your life's path and destiny.

You need stability and order to be happy. You are pragmatic and reliable, disciplined, honest and fair. You can be relied on to get any job done.

Your Personal Year Number is 8

This number tells you what is happening in your life this year. This number should be used to help you avoid setbacks and focus your energies on those areas of your life where you are most likely to achieve your goals.

This is a year in which you should assert your leadership skills, as well as deal with any issues you have developed with authority. The time for you to become empowered, realize success, and achieve financial gain is here.

Your Personal Month Number is 3

This number tells you what is happening in your life this month. Use this number in the same way you would your Personal year number, but apply it only to the current month.

This is a good month for you to approach projects with the full force of your creativity, and, on a personal level, indulge yourself. Put bluntly, have fun!

Your Foundation Letter is N

Having an N Foundation Letter denotes someone who is at least a bit iconoclastic. They will bring new and often better ways of seeing things to a project or venture.

Your End Letter is S

Having an S End Letter identifies someone who is able to see a project or venture through to the end. Their ideal role would be peacemaker. They must be careful not to act without thought, or they could do harm to their endeavors.

Your First Vowel is I

Having an I First Vowel suggest a person who longs for a harmonious environment in which they can nurture their artistic side.
